REFERRALS

What is CCC?

Community Collaboration for Children (CCC) delivers quality services to prevent the abuse and neglect of children prior to involvement with the Cabinet for Health & Family Services (CHFS) or to prevent re-abuse and neglect by providing families with the assistance necessary to prevent the removal of children from the home and address the children's physical, mental, emotional and educational needs.

What is In-Home Services?

In-Home Services is a short-term home based intensive service offered to families to support and empower the family unit. Families will receive services uniquely tailored to meet their individual needs.

In-Home Based Services are designed to educate, strengthen, and support families to prevent child abuse and neglect. Services shall develop, support, and empower the family unit by teaching problem solving skills, discussing appropriate discipline techniques, assisting parents in becoming self-sufficient, and coordinating available community resources. These services can also include but not limited to, Anger Management skills, budgeting skills, parenting curriculum, health and environmental issues and working with developmental delays.

Services combine skill-based intervention with flexible scheduling so that they are available to families according to their individual needs. In-Home Based Service staff teaches the family how to live together safely while addressing their immediate needs.

Referrals for In-Home Services

Referrals for In-Home Services will be accepted from the Department for Community Based Services (DCBS) and associated agencies, other community partners, self-referrals, and any other community members. Referrals will be made to community resources as needed.

There is no cost to the families for any of the services that the CCC Program provides. Limited financial assistance available to help referrals.

Lake Cumberland Community Action Agency, Inc., is a private, non-profit agency, with a mission to help people help themselves. LCCAA has been in the community for 50 years. The agency operates an array of socioeconomic programs.

Thousands of people in the ten-county Lake Cumberland area are either unemployed or under-employed. This low-income population has been excluded from economic and social opportunities which could help them in attaining self-sufficiency and improved living conditions. LCCAA provides the tools and encouragement to empower low-income people to confront and overcome their obstacles.

Our programs, such as Community Collaboration for Children (CCC), is designed with flexibility to respond to immediate individual needs. LCCAA recognizes that an employable workforce, along with employment opportunities which offer a sustaining wage, are equally vital to maximizing the level of success that can and will be achieved.

This program is funded under a contract with the Cabinet for Health & Family Services with funds from Title IV-B, Sub-part 2 of the Federal Social Security Act, Promoting Safe & Stable Families and the Federal Community Based Family Resource & Support Services Grant
